ALEXANDRIA'S INTERESTS.

The "Gazette" Again Referring to the Potomae Hanufacturing Company.

Special to The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

ALEXASDRIA, Jan. 7.—The Gazette of yesterday has a long and labored editorial complaining of a dispatch from this city which appeared in The Republican of the 20th of December, and charging that it was "Intended to throw discredit on the Potomae Manufacturing Company," and "surmising" that the dispatch was written in The Republican office. The Gazette is in error in each. The dispatch was not written in The REPUBLICAN RECUBLICAN office. The Granth is in error in oach. The dispatch was not written in The REPUBLICAN office, nor was if intended to throw discredit upon the Potome Manufacturing Company. The writer of that dispatch is as anxious to see the enterprise succeed as the Granth appears to be; but the Granth while scenning jeanous of the good name and credit of the Potome Manufacturing Company and the interests of Alexandria it takes delight in injuring the crulit of the whole State by publishing the following, which prompted the dispatch in The RECUBLICAN of the 20th uff.

A UNITARIAN HELL.

Rev. Br. Shippen's Normon as to the Belief in a H-reafter.

Rev. Dr. Rush R. Shippen, of All Souls' Unitarian Church, preached a most interesting sermon upon the doctrine of fature punishment, taking the following text: "My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be." Rev., xxii, 12. Dr. Shippen said: I am asked whether I believe in fature punishment. Most assuredly I do. I know of no Unitarians who deny or even doubt it. Now we affirm that eternally it is true that every soul "goes to its own place," as truly as did Judas; that we enjoy what we are prepared for, and in the long rin get what place," as truly as did Judas: that we enjoy what we are prepared for, and in the long run get what we deserve. We affirm that in all the universe the real losing is a losing of purity, bonor, manhod, self-respect, and the regard of food and man, and the essential saving is the saving of beaith, and conscience, and peace, and loy. The vital difference between the popular faith and our own regarding Jesus as Saviour is essentially this: That Jesus is commonly held to pay the penalty of sin aiready committed to let the sinner escape, while the liberal faith declares repentance and reform the only escape, and Jesus the Saviour to touch our hearts and make us renounce our sins and do better. In all the universe there is no place where a false soul can be saved, and in all the divine dominion no place where a true soul can be lost.

Women's Temperance Work.

The upper hall in Masonic Temple was crowded yesterday at the meeting held by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. An excellent choir was in attendance and added greatly to the success of the meeting. Rev. John Naugle, the converted sallor preacher, so efficient in the recent revival services. At Mungh Chapel, conducted the service. Many were moved to tears by his carnest remarks, and many purposes to lead better lives were made as he so powerfully appealed to all who have had difficulty with sim. These meetings are larger each returning Sunday, and there can be no doubt this continual dropping will tell on public opinion largely in the near future. Prayers were especially asked and offered for many. Gospel meetings were announced for each day this week at twelve o'clock, conducted by Mr. Naugle, assisted by the ladies of the organization. These facetings will be held in Masonic Temple, 907 F street, and the public is cordially invited.

The meeting of the Woman's Evangelical Temperance Association, held yesterday afternoon at hashaway Hall, in Georgetown, surpassed in Interest any ever held there. Mr. George Hilton, president of the Mispah Band, made the address of the meeting, and at its conclusion many men raised their hands for prayer, several short speeches were made, and the piedge was signed by many persons. Hon, B. F. Camp, of New York, ex-member of the Legislature, is residing at the National Hotel. Colonel Camp is a gentleman of energy and business enterprise. He was the contractor and builder of many of the grand architectural structures in the city of New York, notably the Bible House, the old Irving House, the Metropolitan and St. Nicholas Hotels, &c. An intelligent reader and keen observer of events in the busy world, of irropressible activity and positive opinions, he is one of the most genial and magnetic of public characters. He was the early personal, business, and political associate and long a confidential friend of Hornee Greeley when the Tribune was the great Republican authority in politics. Hornee was for many years a weekly guest of the Colonel's at the the latter's magnificent farm, "Sonurs," in Westchester County, where the two, relieved of worldly and political cares, surveyed the hundreds of choice cattle roaming the fat green pastures. The fresh air from the mountains and a walk over the broad meadows gave starpened appetitics; so when they had partaken of the purest milk, cream, fresh eggs, and fat Southdown mutton chops the freest of social chatter readity followed.

Death of Chartotte West Conger.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Conger will deeply sympatize with them in the loss of their little daughter. Charlotte West, who died yesterday afterioon after a briefillness. She was a remarkably bright child, beautiful in feature, winsome in manner, and beleved by all who chew her. The grief of the bereaved parcuit is almost overpowering, and none but those who have themselves been called upon to yield up at the divine behest a tenderly cherished child can milly appreciate the agony that such a death brings with it. The only consolation, and even that fails to comfort in the first sad hears of mourning, is that the beautiful bud has simply been transplanted to thossom into a pure and spotess soul in eternity, for it was of little children that it, was said "Of such is the kingdom of heaven." Death of Charlotte West Conger.

Last evening a number of prominent Texas Republicans temporarily at the Capital dropped into the rooms. No. 458 C street northwest, occupied by the Hon. B. Rush Pinniy, Republican member of the Legislature of Texas, now in Washington on nublic business. Among the number were the Hon. Nathan Patton and Hon. James A. McKee, each aforetime collector of the port and postinester at Galveston, and the Hons. Nelson Piatt and Ridge Pascall, at one time collectors at Corpus Christi, with several other active and true Republicans from that great State. All agreed that the lightning had begun to article, politically, in Texas, and that great and important political changes are there hear at hand.

The Literary Society.

The Literary Society discussed "Heredity of Genius" at the residence of Comproller Knox Saturday evening. Mr. Dwight, librarian of the State Department, read a paper on heredity in actions and Mr. Mexer one on heredity in art. An extended discussion followed, in which Professor Gill, Mr. Hoffman, Senator Hawley, Mr. Vordhoff, and others took part. The attendance was large, but the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Knox was more than equal to the occasion. The music, both vocal and violin, was of a high order. The next meeting of the society will be at the residence of Mr. Burnett.

Pleasant Meeting at the Bestdence of The Shaksreare. Club held a most interesting meeting at the residence of General Green B. Raum. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, 529 E-sa Capitol street, on Saturday evening. There was a large steedance, and General and Mr. Baum, saisted by their daughter, Miss Mond, received their guests with a beavity and cordial hospitality that placed them at their case immediately and gave a homelike feeling to all. Their elegant home was entirely placed at the disposition of the club, of which General and Miss Mand Raum are both sellve members, and before the formal exercises were commenced some little time was occupied in examining the many articles of term with which his pariors are filled. Mr. A. A. Brooke acted an master of ceremonies, and the introductions were performed with Chesterfieldian case and grace. In the absence of the president of the club the vice-president, Mr., James H. THE CHRISTIANCY CASE.

THE CHRISTIANCY CASE.

Motion for the Appointment of an Examiner for Additional Textimony.

Ex-Senator Christiancy's counsel filed in the Equity Court Saturday a motion for the appointment of an examiner to take interrogatories in the testimony of certain witnesses residing in Lansing, Mich., in behalf of the respondent to the defendant's cross-bill. They are Ira II, Bartholomew, Halbert B. Shank, Kate Sharkey, Lucy Myers, Orlando M. Barnes, Merritt S. Coleman, E. H. Davis, Russ J. Shank, Stephen D. Bingham, Samuel L. Kilburn, Hurley Ingersoll, Frank Wells, Eugene F. Cooley, Maniley Mills, Martin V. Montgomery, and Sciuyier S. Olds. The object of these Interrigatories is to contradict the testimony of Mrs. Christianey and her mother, Mrs. Lugenbeel, concerning the experience and treatment of the former while in the Christianey family at Lansing, Mich., and conduct of her husband toward her during that period. By these witnesses the conneclatio believe that they can show that Mrs. Christianey received no cruel treatment while in Michigan, and that her husband was absent from home attending to legal business at the time she swears that her husband was absent from home attending to legal business at the time she swears that her husband was absent from home attending to legal business at the time she swears that her husband was of the following witnesses in the city of New York, viz. Z. Swiff Webb, Mrs. Eliza Ahrens, Mrs. Catharine Citte, Garrett M. Clute, William G. Churchill, Alfred Lents, and Mrs. Harriet Gale. The object of examining these wilnesses is for the purpose of contradicting the resided with them; to contradict Goodman's testimony of Mary Chamberlaine and Charles Goodman and show that the former nerve worked and by whom he was employed, and that persons by whom he was employed, and that persons by whom he was employed, and that persons by whom he claimed the heaven employed and to prove the swore that she did, and that persons by whom he claimed the heaven and linead to prove it possible.

An Outrage-More Policemen Wanted, Washington, on a Monday, and on the following Frinky, at four p. m., a gentleman called on Major Brock at Felice Headquarters to see what progress was being made in the capture and punishment of the villaling who had committed so foul a deed, when to his amazement he learned that the case was unknown to the police—that it had never been reported. The friends of the victim in the Land Office have generously contributed in money for his reliet that he may not lose his home by reason of this misfortune. And now who can inform the injured man or his family how many of our police men were on that particular day detailed at the houses of some other private citizens who were receiving their friends at the very moment this poor man was being thus robbed and injured.

Dashaway Reform Club.

Lincoln Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity last evening to greet the newly-elected president of the club, Mr. Charles M. Sye. The retring president, Mr. H. B. Moulton, in the opening address paid a glowing tribute to the newly-elected president, who came forward and in a short address thanked the club for the honor it had conferred on him. He also stated that he accepted the trust and hoped he would leave the club in agood condition as it was last night. To this end he wanted each meeting to pay its own expenses through the collections. A short address was made by Colonel Meacham, who, in closing, introduced Miss Daniels, who favored the audience with a solo, which was lendly encored. A very interesting address was delivered by John B. Dunning, after which Miss Hopkins sang, "Where is My Wandering Boy To-Night?" A series of resolutions were adopted thanking the late president, H. B. Moulton, for the efficient manner in which he has discharged the idunces of his office; also, pledging the support of the club to the newly-elected officers. Judge J. J. Harker, of Kanasa, was called to the platform, and mode one of the most interesting and practical aspeals to fathers to come forward and sign the pledge with him, and thus make their families happy. AANUARY. [From the Autograph Birthday Book.]

James I ami; oldest of potentates;

Porward I look, and backward and below
i count, as god of avenues and gules.
The years that through my portals come and go,
I block thormals and don't the fields with snow;
I chase the wild down from the frozen for!
My frosts congeal the river in their flow;
My firest congeal the river in their flow;
My fires lishing the hearing and hearts of men.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Chimes of Normandy," Rossi, Robson and Crane, and the Skating Rink, developed with more rapidity hash any musical organization that ever formed in this District, will make its first public performance on Friday night next at Lincola Hall, when it will present the charming opera of "The Chimes of Normandy." All the leading local vocalists are members of this association, and it may safely be predicted that the chorus will be larger and more perfectly drilled than any that has ever been heard here. The principal roles have been intrusted to competent persons, the cast being as follows: Serpediet, Miss Eva-Mills; Germaine, Mrs. Jennie True; Herri, Mr. John O. Pugh; Robies More, Mr. Harry Pearson; Gaspard, Mr. E. B. Hay: The Raidy, Mr. L. P. Selbold, and The Nolary, Mr. H. A. Foresman. There will be three performances—on Priday and Saturday nights and a mattinee on Saturday afternoon, The box-sheet is now at Ellis' music store, where seats may be secured. As these performances are for the association's own cenelit, it is looped that the public will generously respond, and that there may be full houses at each representation.

Ford's Opera-House. Rossi, the Italian tragestian, will make his first appearance before a Washington audience to night, at Ford's Opera-Rouse, appearing in Sinkspeare's masterly creation, "Hamlet." In reference to his performance of this part in Ballimore last week, the Sas of that city says: "Rossi is undoubtedly the exponent of the Southern school (sined with a magnifieent presence, a metodiom voice, and expressive features, he ranges over the whole gamut of human emotion, and revesuated a whole gamut of human emotion, and presented type of Shaksperean beauty that has probat never been excelled by an English-speaking act

The comellars, Robsen and Crave, supported by their own comedy company, comprising Mesers. A. S. Lipman, Harry Meredilli, John Marble, Charles Webb, Theo, N. Roberts, F. E. Ambrose, and Misses Alicia Robsen, Adele Waters, Grace E. Thorne, and Mrs. Mary Myers, will appear at the National Theatre this evening. Bradford's exceedingly funny consedy, "Our Bachelors," with Stuart Robsen as Backelor Joner, will be presented tonight, Tuesday, and Wednesday evening, also at the Saturday matinee, and be followed for the remainder of the week with the specularity satire entitled "Sharps and Flats," Stiart Robsen appearing as the Bold Speculator of the Constick, while fMr. Crane will portray the ex-parson, Dullsone Flat. Both these concedians are great favorites here, and their engagement will of course be eminently successful. National Theatre.
